What is a Primavera Design Authority?

A Primavera Design Authority (DA) is an advisory role to a customer, and can be created as part of an implementation, or can operate in support of an existing Design Authority in the customer's IT or Business organizations. The objectives of a DA are to work with the incumbent systems integrator and the customer to advise and guide on solution design and architecture, in respect of Oracle Primavera products within scope of an implementation. Furthermore, it provides leading practices and knowledge of the use of Oracle Products in your industry which:

- Maximizes the use of standard functionality
- Provides thought leadership
- Reduces cost by minimizing unnecessary customization
- Provides governance of design decisions
- Provides a "counterweight" to system integrator

What Is The Value of a Primavera Design Authority?

A Primavera DA delivers value to a customer by:

- Focusing on best use of standard product configuration to support business processes now and in future
- Identifying further areas of product use to extend the reach of your Primavera investment
- Supporting and advising on leading practice for integrating Applications into an existing environment or as greenfield implementation
- Aligning solution design as far as possible to ease future take-up of Oracle Primavera roadmap functionality
- Sharing learnings from other similar Primavera implementations where extensions are required to design them in a way that makes them easily upgradeable
