

What is a registration code used for?

A registration code is used for the sole purpose of registering and authenticating your product, allowing you to process more than the demonstration period of 200 transactions.

The registration code for Pastel Partner and Xpress must be updated annually which allows us to maintain our internal database in order for customers to receive benefits, such as newsletters and free upgrades.
